

Northeastern University Resume

Leadership Positions

Chapter President, Ramon AZA #195 of BBYO Inc.

Aleph Zadik Aleph (AZA) is a nonprofit Jewish organization that develops leadership, social, and management skills within teens

- Elected President of my Jewish Youth Group Chapter
 - Plan and execute events for hundreds of teens
 - Lead meetings, give speeches to my chapter and the Board
 - Have also served as Vice President and Senior Judaic Officer

Senior Class President

- Elected by students to represent senior class at my high school
 - Organize multiple fundraisers including most successful event in class's history
 - Serve on student committee to plan school-wide dances and spirit days
 - Program class trips and events outside of school

Volunteer and Activism Work

Journalist: Write On For Israel:

- Selected for this competitive year-long Israel advocacy program
- Studied journalism and issues relating to the Middle East conflict
- Wrote daily blogs while on three week trip to Israel
- My article was featured in the local paper.

Board Member: South Peninsula Jewish Teen Foundation

- Selected to serve on Jewish Teen Philanthropic board
- Created and wrote mission statement for the allocation of our funds
- Researched global causes and non-profits and advocated for my selected organization
- Personally raised over $2,000 as part of $67,000 donated by our board

Employment

De Anza Cupertino Aquatics (May, 2014 to August 2015)

- Worked as a Swim Instructor and Lifeguard for children ranging from 3 months to 14 years old.
- Trained to teach swimming to children with special needs

Art With Jenny June, 2015 to August, 2015

- Worked with children ages 4-10 at a local art camp.

Private Swim Lessons – Summers 2014 & 2015

- Taught swim lessons at five different private homes.

Clubs

Jewish Life Committee

- Plan weekly school-wide assemblies and Jewish themed events

Israel Club

- Educate school-wide community on Israeli culture. Created and executed a week long Israel spirit celebration

Other Activities

• Kehillah Jewish High School Varsity Swim Team

-Member of team all 4 years; Captain Grade 11, 12.

• 1st Degree Black Belt

-Received from West Coast Martial Arts Academy on September 29th, 2013

• Lifeguard, Bloodborne Pathogens, and CPR Certified